April 3 Is Deadline To Apply For SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loans

ATLANTA - The U.S. Small Business Administration is reminding businesses in Massachusetts that Economic Injury Disaster Loans are still available to small businesses economically impacted by an apartment fire that occurred on June 14, 2008.

“Businesses that suffered economic losses as a result of the disaster and want to apply for low-interest loans from the SBA are urged to do so before the April 3 deadline,” said Frank Skaggs, Director of SBA Field Operations Center East.

Small businesses, and most private, non-profit organizations of all sizes in the following counties are eligible to apply: Bristol, Middlesex, Norfolk, Plymouth, Suffolk, Worcester in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and contiguous Providence County in the State of Rhode Island.

Loans are available up to $2 million for small businesses and most private, non-profit organizations of all sizes that suffered substantial economic injury from the disaster. These working capital loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable, and other bills that could have been paid had the disaster not occurred. These loans are not intended to replace lost sales or profits.

The interest rate on these loans is 4 percent, with a maximum term of 30 years. The SBA determines the amount of economic injury and the terms of each loan based on the financial circumstances of each borrower. The SBA determines eligibility for the program based on the size and type of business and its financial resources.

To obtain a loan application, contact the SBA’s Customer Service Center at 1-800-659-2955 (1-800-877-8339 for the hearing-impaired) Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. EST, or by sending an email to disastercustomerservice@sba.gov. Business disaster loan applications can also be downloaded from www.sba.gov/services/disasterassistance. Completed applications should be mailed to: U.S. Small Business Administration, Processing and Disbursement Center, 14925 Kingsport Road, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

Victims may apply for disaster loans from SBA’s secure website at <https://disasterloan.sba.gov/ela/>.

The deadline for economic injury applications is April 3, 2009.
